2. Terms applying to all material submitted for publication

- 2.1 Publisher's Rights: All material submitted for publication is subject to the Publisher's approval. The Publisher may alter, reject or withdraw any material without giving reasons.
- 2.2 Warranties: The Advertiser warrants that advertisements submitted to the Publisher comply in all respects with the provisions of the Advertising Codes of Practice issued by the Advertising Standards Authority Inc ("ASA") and with every other applicable code or industry standard governing or affecting advertising in New Zealand, whether issued by the ASA or otherwise. The Advertiser also warrants as follows for all material submitted to the Publisher for publication
 - (a) The material does not contain any matter that is misleading or deceptive, or likely to mislead or deceive, or that otherwise contravenes the Fair Trading Act 1986 or similar legislation.
 - (b) The material does not contain any matter that is defamatory or indecent, or that otherwise offends against generally accepted community standards, or is likely to bring the Publisher, or any of its staff or publications, into disrepute.
 - (c) The material does not contain any matter that constitutes a breach of copyright or an infringement of a registered trade mark or registered design or that otherwise infringes any intellectual or industrial property rights.
 - (d) The material is not in breach of any provision of any statute, regulation, by-law or other rule or law.
 - (e) Publication of the material will not give rise to any claims against or liabilities for the Publisher.
- 2.3 Responsibility and Indemnity: Advertisers must immediately advise the Publisher of any error in material they have submitted for publication or had published. The Advertiser indemnifies and keeps indemnified the Publisher against all claims, costs, damages and expenses arising directly or indirectly from:
 - (a) The content of material submitted for publication (including errors in it);
 - (b) The above warranties, or any of them, being untrue or ceasing to be true;
 - (c) The Publisher having to alter the material submitted, for any reason.

3. Advertisements

- 3.1 Bookings: Advertisements must be booked by the Booking Deadline and material supplied to the publisher no later than the Content Deadline. Bookings and/or content accepted after these dates will be entirely at the discretion of the publisher. Verbal bookings must be confirmed in writing.
- 3.2 Advertising Rates: Advertisements will be charged at the Publisher's current advertising rates as at the date the booking is made. Information about current advertising rates is available from the Publisher on request.

- 3.3 Specification Work: The Publisher reserves the right to make all and any modifications which in its opinion are necessary to bring an advertisement within the Publication Specifications. The Publisher may charge for any work carried out to bring an advertisement within its specifications at its then current rates or, if the work is done externally, at the rate charged to the Publisher by that party.
- 3.4 Terms of Sale and Payment: All advertising space is sold subject to these Terms and Conditions of Sale. Accounts must be paid in full on or before the 20th of the month following the date stated in the Publisher's invoice.
- 3.5 Discounts: A frequency discount may apply if an Advertiser books advertising space for more than one issue. If a booking is cancelled or varied:

 - (b) The Publisher may invoice the Advertiser for an amount equal to the frequency discounts previously credited to the Advertiser for that booking.
- 3.6 Cancellations and Delays: Bookings may be cancelled, in writing, without penalty up to 5.00pm on the 7th day before the Booking Deadline advertised for that edition by the publisher. The Publisher may charge the full advertising fee for cancellations made after that time. If a booked advertisement is not received by the Publisher by the Content Deadline, the Publisher will make every endeavour to accommodate the advertisement in that edition but may have to decline to publish the advertisement in that edition. The advertiser shall then have the option to cancel the booking in which case the agreed rate for the booking shall be payable by the advertiser or rebook it in the next suitable edition, in which case a penalty charge of 50% in addition to the applicable advertising rate will apply. Any additional costs incurred by the Publisher to insert an advertisement in a booked edition, where content has been received after the Content Deadline shall be for the Advertiser's account.
- 3.7 Publisher's Rights: If full payment of any account is not received by the Publisher by the due date for payment then, without prejudice to the Publisher's other rights and remedies, the Publisher may reallocate to another advertiser any advertising space booked by the Advertiser; and recover from the Advertiser all costs incurred by the Publisher in recovering debts owed to it by the Advertiser.
