

Key points: Level 3 (RESTRICT) is about being safe

Restrict contact with one another

Your staff should continue to work from home where possible.

(if not possible, you can re-open, but you must comply with health & safety requirements around physical distancing and you must have contactless engagement with your customers.

If you require hand sanitiser or other surface cleaning products for your workplace, please do not hesitate to contact us on info@chamber.co.nz

Workplace premises only accessed by staff

Workplace premises only accessed by staff
Building & Construction	Building and construction work can be done.
Call Centres	Can run from premises for workers who cannot work from home
Financial Advisors	Can open its office for workers who cannot work from home. The organisation cannot take in-person appointments with clients.
Food and Beverage	Food and beverage production and processing firms can operate for staff who cannot work from home.
Magazine Publisher	A magazine publisher can open its office for staff who cannot work from home. Production, contactless delivery and retail distribution of magazines can also take place.
Manufacturer	A manufacturing plant can operate for staff who cannot work from home and export goods (all freight can be distributed at Alert Level 3). Tradespeople are allowed on premises, as long as there is the ability to contact trace.
Film	Work can be done on film and tv sets, but the full range of screen production may not be possible due to limitations (eg: preventing close personal contact between actors and hair and make-up artists)
Forestry	Forestry (including harvest and wood processing) work can happen.
Wool	All parts of the wool value chain can operate
Flowers	Flower growing and distribution can be done
Science & research	Institutions can operate from premises for workers who cannot work from home.

Workplace premises accessed by the public or customers

Supermarkets	Remain open
Dairies	Can open – but must operate a one-in one-out policy
Petrol Stations	Can open
Hardware & DIY	Hardware and DIY stores can operate and sell all of their goods to any customers via contact-less delivery or pick-up.
Agricultural & pet stores	Can offer contactless delivery or drive through
Clothing stores	Can operate through contactless delivery and pickup. They cannot have physical storefronts open to the public.
Bars, Cafes, restaurants	Can offer contactless delivery or the collections of food and non-alcoholic drinks. They can also operate drive throughs. They cannot have a physical storefront open to the public and customers cannot dine on-site.
Entertainment & tourist facilities (such as cinema, theatres, art galleries, mini golf, arcades, bungee jumping, or bowling alleys)	Cannot open
Licensed supermarkets and the liquor stores in the four Licensing Trust areas with a monopoly can sell alcohol. Open liquor store premises must operate with a one-in-one-out rule.	Only off-licence holders whose license says they can sell and deliver alcohol, can do so through contactless delivery and pick-up. All requirements of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act, licence conditions/restrictions, requirements for remote sales and limit on quantity of spirits to be sold apply
General retail	General retail stores can operate, as long as they deliver goods or offer contact-less pick-up. They cannot have physical storefronts open to the public.
Malls	Shopping centres/malls can only open to allow access to essential services like supermarkets and pharmacies
Hairdressers, barbers, nail salons and non-medical massage services	Cannot open
Exercise facilities and classes	Can offer lessons remotely (e.g. by video), but cannot open their premises.

Workers going to customers or a third party premises

Real Estate	A real estate firm can open its office for staff who cannot work from home. The firm cannot take in-person appointments with clients.
Property Management	Open homes cannot take place in person, but they can happen remotely. One-on-one viewings and pre-settlement inspections may be possible. Further guidance to come.
Couriers	Couriers and parcel services can operate. Deliveries should be contactless.
Moving Companies	Removal/moving companies can operate.
Tradespeople	Plumbers, electricians and tradespeople can work on customers' property (e.g. in homes).
Client facing	Client-facing workers (such as sales and business development people) must meet with clients remotely unless it is an essential service.
Home cleaners	Cannot work in clients' homes.
Door-to-door sales	Are not allowed.

Workplaces with no premises

Outdoor Adventure business	Outdoor adventure activities (e.g. guided walks, kayaking tours, quad bike adventures or scenic flights or boat trips) should not operate.
Driver instruction/Licensing	Driver instruction and licencing cannot happen, other than aspects of applications that may be done remotely.

CALL 0800 543 543